VOL. 4.--NO. 1.

J. B. TAPSCOTT

CIVIL ENGINEER.

AND SURVEYOR.

larksville, Tenn. [Jan. 3, 1868-tf.

E. C. ROACH,

Cotton and Tobacco Factor.

AND GENERAL

Commission Merchant

No. 28, Carondelet Street,

TURNBULL, KIRBY & CO.

Cotton and Tobacco Factors

-AND

Commission Merchants

No. 9, Union Street,

AND GENERAL

CARONDOLET ST., NEW ORLEANS.

WHEELER & WILSON

HAVE JUST BEEN

NEW ORLEANS.

Nov. 9, 1867-1y*

Sept. 14, 1867-1y.

Nast ville, Tenn.

Jan. 10, '68-tf.

NEW ORLEANS.

Work of every description con

BUSINESS CARDS.

JOSH, M. RICE, AG'T

WM. BROADDUS & CO

Vholesale and Retail Dealers in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES, TRUNKS, VALICES,

HOSIERY, NOTIONS, ETC., No. 8, South sids of Franklin Street, sign of liig Trunk. Call and see them. Salemen.—R. H. PICKERING, R.S. BROAD-CS, JOHN J. MASSIE, C. W. ANGLIN. Sep 18, 1808-17

P. H. PORTER, Agent, DEALER IN

FURNITURE. Wall Paper, HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS, &c

FRANKLIN STREET, CLARKSVILLE, - - - TENNESSEE,

HASJUSTRECEIVED A LARGELOTOF April 17, 1868-tf.

DR. H. M. ACREE. Dental Surgeon,

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Office at his new residence on Franklin street, two doors East of the Episcopal Church. [Jan. 11, 1868-tf.

E. M. THOMAS, Attorney at Law, Office, on Strawberry Alley,

CLARKSVILLE, - TENN. Oct. 25, 1867-ly.

J. G. ROBINS, Attorney at Law, SEWING MACHINES

CLARKSVILLE, -- TENNESSEE.  OFFICE ON STRAWBERRY ALLEY. Special attention paid to the collection of Awarded the Highest Pre-April 10, 1808-1f.

A. F. SMITH, late of Smith & Turnley. I. B. HUTCHINGS, late of Hutchings & Grinte W. WEATHERS, late of Turnley Wonthers.

SMITH & HUTCHINGS,

TOBACCO FACTORS

COMMISSION MERCHANTS, "CUMBERLAND WAREHOUSE," CLARKSVILLE . . TANNESSEE. It takes the Lock Stitch, Sews with a Nov. 8, 1867-1y.

W. H. & D. M. DORRIS. DEALERS IN Stoves, Tinware, Castings, Grates, and House Furnishing Goods. Every description of Tinware pende up in good style.

1997 H. P. DORRIS will superintend the Sept. 6, 1867-If

J. F. SMITH. JOHN K. SMITH. JOHN K. SMITH & SON,

COTTON & TOBACCO FACTORS General Commission Merchants

NO. 47 BROAD STREET. NEW YORK CITY. making advances on consignments.

CLARKSVILLE

FEMALE ACADEMY

THE FALL SESSION OF THIS INSTI-TERMS:

EXTRAS Use of Instrument French and German, each, Greek and Latin

Ctarksville, July 24, 68-16.

LOOK AT THIS

AND ENCOURAGE HOME WOR E. GAISSER.

ILAVING TOCATED IN CLARKSVILLE as Manufacturer of Ross Ford and Content of Ross Ford and Content of Ross Ford and Content of Ross Fording, Window Shutters, Rank Foults and Doors, and all kinds of Ross Foulthing, and REALING CONTENT TO GR. SHUTTO GR. Will be pleased to receive your orders at his shop on Commerce street, next court in the Foundry.

May 22, '68-600.

WANTED! HIDES! HIDES!! HIDES!!

W. E. WILL, PAY THE RIGHIST MARE for land in District No. 1, containing Section of Front street, Clarkeville from Aller balance in timber. Termicrasy, and Front street, Clarkeville from Aller balance in timber. Termicrasy, Aller and Aller balance in timber.

CLARKSVILLE CHRONICLE.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1868.

THE PADUCAH FAIR.

Turnley & Wooldridge, TOBACCO

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCAANTS tended to promptly.

FOR Office, on East side of Public Square.

Elephant Fire-Proof Warehouse,

STUART, NORTON & CO., (Successors to Hewitt, Norton & Co.,)

Commission Merchants. No. 88 Common Street, NEW ORLEANS. Consignments of Tobacco, Flour, Grain rovisions and other produce sollcited.

CLARKSVILLE OUNDRY AND MACHINE SHOP.

MR. S. B. SEAT, Agent, will attend to ma-king advances on Produce consigned to this YEATMAN & CO

COTTON AND TOBACCO FACTORS. Commission Merchants

mium and only Gold Medal

It the Parts Exposition in France OVER EIGHTY-TWO COMPETITORS!

THEY TOOK THE FIRST PREMIUM, also, as follows:—World's Pair, London, in 1862; Paris Exposition, in 1861; all United States Fairs; once or oftener at all State Fairs and Mechanic Institutes; and at the European International Fairs of Ling, Konigsburg, Danizle, Agraio, Krenis, Dubliz, Stettin, Cologue and Wismar.

Revolving Hook, Uses no Shuttle.

has the highest speed, and Sews, Hems, Fells, Braids Cords and Incks in the most beautiful manner.

300,000 Hare bern made aud sold ! ROOFING and GUTTERING promptly DE WARRANTED THREE YEARS, '80

Es: Machines delivered and instructions Unil and examine, or address

N. F. HOOD. Franklin St., Clarksville, Tenn.

D. KINCANNON. J. J. HAMLETT

D. KINCANNON & CO., W. C. SMITH will act as our Agent in A HE NOW RECEIVING THEIR STOCK

Tin, Wood and Willow Ware, and accurate compounder of medicines. whitch has been selected with an eye to the wants of the public, which they will seil as cheap as the cheapest, Call and see.

B. KINCANNON & CO.

Sep 18, 1868-5in

Nothing preventing, we will ize you again, gentlemen.

We racched home safely noon, found our friends gis

CLARKSVILLE CARRIAGE FACTORY!

WE ARE STILL MAKING ALL KINDS of Buggies, Rockaways, and Light Spring B begons, of the most approved this his, when we warrant superior to anything sold in this market. REPAIRING SOLICITED.

We use the best material and workman-ship, and warrant satisfaction. Call and see us, corner of Commerce and Taled 48. BAKER & BROTHER.

Confectionery, Bakery,

ICE CREAM SALOON

They have attached a BAKERT to their establishment, and having one of the best pumpers of the Foundry.

MISS MAGGIE MCINERNEY

AS OPENED A HAIR ESTABLISH ment at Miss. I. Tassi's Millinery store, a Courte & Beaumont's, where she is to want upon soft the low may full broadmental thair Work they may stable best—call and try them.

MISS ACCOUNTS A Beaumont's, where she is to want upon soft the low may full broadmental thair Work they may stables and reduction of the best—call and try them.

LITAN & ELY.

May 8, 1868-4f.

May 8, 1868-4f.

LAND FOR SALE.

For the Chronicle 1

MR. EDITOR: I send you a little ceedingly courteous and gentlemanly, and we now take the opportunity of tendering thanks for kindnesses rendered.

Then, Mike, let all our countrymen Unite with heart and hand, Anderush this hated tyranny In our adopted land.
Our gallant ship "Democracy," Will sail on, never fear, Will sail on, never fear, Will two such men upon her deck As Seymour and Frank Blair. We will stand upon the platform, And our notto it shall be: The stateman true, the soldier brave, entire strangers. To Messrs. Ellington & Gentry we are indebted for this or any State—We want white men, and we'll have then In November, Sixty-Eight. nuch pleasure; for which, gentlemen, accept our sincere thanks.

Our sojourn in the city of Paducah proved very unfavorable for attending we did not agree with one or two parties who were in favor of all reparties who were we celving a blue ribbon, for we will say, and every effort seemed a burthen; yet she ceased not in her daily lobors. Mr. J. looks on in heaving the core in favor of this kind, and we do hope it may not fall under the eye of the beauting that the track of his stolen horses. Short-look of this kind, and we do hope it may not fall under the eye of the beauting to us to be compelled to make a call of this kind, and we do hope it may not fall under the eye of the beauting that he had have so feat the looks of the kind, and we do hope it may not fall under the eye of the beauting that he had have so feat the constitution; yet she ceased not in her daily lobors. Mr. J. looks on in heaving the cover, the ceased not in her daily lobors. Mr. J. looks on in heaving the cover, the ceased not in her daily looks of the kind, and we do hope it may not fall under the eye of the beauting to us to be compelled to make a burthen; yet she ceased not in her daily looks on in heaving the cover.

'You milk! Whereupon earth did you learn?'

'I learned when I was quite a little girl. Do you not remember how you and mother used to call of this kind, and we do hope it may not fall under the eye of ceiving a blue ribbon, for we will say, and without any hesitancy, that "little Clarksville Huldah" is the most graceful and fearless rider we have ever known, and right glad were we to see her bear off the prize. That's right; try it again, my friend, and may you always meet with the same success. Often did our hearts bound with joy and pride at the many prolonged cheers for Clarks.

(AT.J. N. NEILETT'S OLD STAND)

ceiving a blue ribbon, for we will say, and without butter and milk. I can milk the cows.'

Without butter and milk. I can milk the cows.'

You milk! Whereupon earth did you learn?

You learn?

You milk! Whereupon earth did you learn?

You learn?

You milk! Whereupon earth did you learn?

You learn?

You milk! Whereupon earth did you learn?

You wilk jest try it again, my fried, and may you learn?

J. E. Drom. Again of this kind, and we do hope it may not fall under the eye of the be-ness of heart, and feels that if she too goes he will not longsurvive her-ner does he w

Old Machines adjusted and Improved. All Medicines kept are War-ing arose, and as "homeward bound"

& CO, and may the day soon roll around

NOVEMBER, SIXTY-EIGHT.

Am-" Wearing of the Green."

MR. EDITOR: I send you a little sketch of our trip to the Fair recently held at Paducah, which may be of interest to some of your readers.

The steamer Ella Hughes, on September 20th, left our wharf with the party, consisting of eight or ten ladies and the same number of gentlemen, hailing from Christian county, Trigg County Ky.

Trigg County Ky.

Yooldridge,

MR. EDITOR: I send you a little sketch of our trip to the Fair recently held at Paducah, which may be of interest to some of your readers.

The news that's in the town? The news that's in the town?

The news that's in the town?

The Rads are sinking down.

When aegre lovers heard the news it drow them our people chose were segmour and Frank Blair.

Oh! when the word came from New York That Seymour was the head.

And Blair the news that from New York That Seymour was the head.

They know that Grant was dead.

They know that Grant was dead.

They know that Grant was dead.

They know that wool-dyed pates, and cried our men won't be elected.

In November, Sixty-Eight.

Oh! Mike, it does me good to see day being the Sabbath, music, dancing, and pleasure-making generally, were dispensed with. However, this did not prevent our having a very good time, for indeed we were not a set to allow the hour to hang heavily upon our hands, but accepted the old adage—that of "making hay while the sun shone."

The officers of our craft were exceedingly courteous and gentlemanly, and we now take the opportunity of recommendation.

A SOUTHERN HEROINE. An Incident of the Late War.

the Fair and sight-seeing. Though this was a small obstacle, as the gentlemen of our party, and those of Padueah also, did all in their power to contribute to our pleasure.

Brass and Iron Castings.

Drompt Attention Given to our party and those of the war opened. She ha' been reared in all the luxury of a Southern planter's life. Just as soon as the Federal to contribute to our pleasure.

The Fair—as much as we saw of it—was very good and highly entertaining. One day was quite exciting, and all manifested much interest on account of the ladies' ridling. The ladies all rode beautifully. However, we did not agree with one or two parties who were in favor of all receiving a blue ribbon, for we will say, without butter, papa; we cannot do full the fair and sight-seeing. Though this was a small obstacle, as the gentlemen of our party, and those of Padueah also, did all in their power to contribute to our pleasure.

The Fair—as much as we saw of it—was very good and highly entertaining. One day was quite exciting, and all manifested much interest on account of the ladies' ridling. The ladies all rode beautifully. However, we did not agree with one or two parties who were in favor of all receiving a blue ribbon, for we will say, without butter, popular, was just streen when the war opened. She ha 'been reared in all the luxury of a Southern Opinion.]

Mr. J. lived in ——. Laura, his eldest daughter, was just six teen when the war opened. She ha 'been reared in all the luxury of a Southern Opinion.]

Wr. J. lived in ——. Laura, his eldest daughter, was just six teen when the war opened. She ha 'been reared in all the luxury of a Southern Opinion.]

Wr. J. lived in ——. Laura, his eldest daughter, was just six teen when the war opened. She ha 'been reared in all the luxury of a Southern Opinion.]

Wr. J. laved in ——. Laura, his eldest daughter, was just six teen when the war opened. She ha 'been reared in all the luxury of a Southern Opinion.]

So thing preventing, we will patron its you again, gentlemen.

We raceled home saily Monday on the form of the prevention of the preventio we can live until we can' raise more. The negroes, except Anni Charriy and Henry must be sent within the concern's line to be fed. I will give them a letter to the Yankee General who will feed them, which is stored who will feed them. which is stored who will feed them, which is stored will we can live, I we handed who will do the stored who will feed them. Will you not hake comfort in your children?"

"If will try, my child."

Mr. J. followed this advice, and the heroic noble girl unbed the sorrow motherless heart, and arose to cheer follows and labor for the sake of the girl dear ofters left in the land of her hirth, her love, and the land of her hirth, her love, and the pride. Industrious hands a cheerful spirt accomplish wonders, and there is the spirt and the great fine house in trees and wild vines, which refere the spirt accomplish wonders, and there is the spirt and the spirt and the great fine house in trees and wild vines, which refere the spirt and the great fine house in trees and wild vines, which refere the spirt and the spirt and

The Purity of Heratic Seymour's

Private Life.

A lady furnishes the Revolution
(Mrs. Cady Stanton) the following in relation to the private worth and character of Horatic Seymour:

In private conversation Governor

In private conversation Governor

bound with Joy and pride at the many prolonged cheers for ClarksFranklin St., Clarksville, Tennessee.

I have located permanently in Clarksville when some one of our party and intend to peut a work that will compare without of the many prolonged cheers.

I have located permanently in Clarksville when some one of our party and intended to peut and intend to peut a work that will compare without of the provided and price. A lady furnishes the Revolution knowing well what a blast and blight the fall of her loved country has east upon a nature like hers.

It has been a cool, rosy-tinted fall adva; all animal existence seems instinct with renewedstrength and life.

Our mutual friends, Messrs. Allensworth, Herndon and Dick, had each a premium awarded them—one for a Northern were a fine for the drawing so finesh, since you did not get a drop; pray tell us what it is all about? April 10, 1888-1y.

Our mutual friends, Messrs. Allensworth, Herndon and Dick, had each a premium awarded them—one for the drop; in the corner with the fall of her loved country has east upon a mature like hers.

It has been a cool, rosy-tinted fall adva; all animal existence seems instinct with renewedstrength and life.

Our mutual friends, Messrs. Allensworth, Herndon and Dick, had each a premium awarded them—one for the drop; pray tell us what it is all about? A mischlevous twinkle stole day; all animal existence seems instinct with renewedstrength and life.

The dogs run, frisk and leap; the chron's first one and around out off school; the brown even in the fall of the relation to the private of Horatio Seymour:

Such a first o and the content of these premium, since, of course, they were a secondary consideration.

THO'S. FINLEY

On Welnesthy evening at the little with the content of the premium, since, of course, they were a secondary consideration.

On Welnesthy evening at the little with t the innocency of childhood.

THE following is an extract from Albert Pike's late speech in St. Louis. It appears that the latter commanded the port of Humboldt Bay, in Oregon, where it cannot be reprinted too often:

HILLMAN Have now in store THEIR NEW FALL GOODS

COULTER,

FOR 1868. Three Goods Must be Sold.

The Stock is prime in every department. BARGAINS will be offered in GENTLEMEN'S BOOTS AND SHOES,

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S SHOES, and in all kinds of Domestic, Woolen and Fancy

Goods, and Carpetings and Oil Cloths.

Remember ours is the ONLY HOUSE selling on the ONE PRICE SYSTEM toull. Uniformly Low Cash Prices to Every Body.

All are urgently invited to call and see the largest and test Stock ever exhibited by our house.

Respectfully,

COULTER, HILLMAN & CO. Frankith Street.